

INSPIRE³ seeks to do exactly what the acronym states as its purpose: Service-Learning and Philanthropy Education Resources to support school administrators, teachers, counselors, and youth development professionals with free resources and tools to help them educate, engage, and empower students through meaningful real-world learning through service. INSPIRE³ is facilitated and supported by the IASP (Indiana Association of School Principals) and the IMLEA (Indiana Middle Level Education Association)

Visit the INSPIRE3 webpage located on the IASP website under their About tab and on the IMLEA website under the INSPIRE3 tab. Any questions – See the Contact Us page under Professional Development

Imagine a world where all youth are knowledgeable and equipped for lifelong engagement in philanthropy as givers of time, talent, and treasure for the common good. The Learning to Give website has no cost Philanthropy Education/Service-Learning Lessons and Resources that Teach Giving and Civic Engagement through Academics. LTG equips K-12 teachers with lessons and resources to educate students as philanthropists with knowledge, skills, and action to make a better world. Connect students' civic lives to academic learning and service-learning. Over 1700+ K-12 teacher created lesson plans searchable by keyword, issue area, subject, grade level, theme, calendar event and academic standards. Add service to your calendar by aligning philanthropy lessons and service-learning projects to monthly events. Browse the Issue Area pages with related lessons and toolkits. No cost Educator Mini-Courses provide online professional training in philanthropy education and service-learning. Get Started!! www.learningtogive.org

The mission of generationOn is to inspire, equip, and mobilize youth to take action that changes the world and themselves through service. Educators, parents, community organizations, and youth themselves will find free resources needed to ignite the power and potential of young people to become leaders and problem solvers, successful students and active community members through service. The generationOn website has no cost resources for many audiences that include age-appropriate issue area project ideas, instructions, how-to guides for K-12 youth, in addition to, service-learning resources, school and clubs programs, and online service and service-learning trackers for educators and teens. www.generationOn.org

Why Philanthropy Education and the Benefits of Service-Learning -Service-Learning is a teaching and learning strategy that combines real-world application of academic skills/content with service to the community

- Students exhibit more charitable beliefs, attitudes, and behaviors
- Builds ownership and “Why Serve?” of service-learning
- Gives a deeper purpose for learning – students recognize talents and skills to “make a difference”
- Increases student motivation to attend school
- Improves school culture
- Community sees youth as an asset rather than a liability
- Practice different habits of life-long philanthropy
- Broadens perspectives or career opportunities
- Develops critical thinking and leadership skills