ACADEMIC SUPER BOWL

Ireland in the 20th Century

Whew! This is a difficult topic, but we're on it. We spent the summer studying the history of Ireland in the 20th century, and we've begun to put together materials for the books that IACE released in June. Thus, we're ahead in English and Social Studies, but we had to wait for the official outlines to get started with Math, Science, and Fine Arts. We're in good shape though, and our goal is to have all questions, notes, video tutorials, and Powerpoints finished by January 5 with online games and Quizlets to follow shortly thereafter.
